KEY POINTS: PRESENT PROGRESSIVE IN SPANISH

- The Spanish present progressive refers to actions that:
 - Are taking place at the moment of speaking.
 - Are still current or in progress.
 - Estar (present) + gerund is the formula to build the present progressive tense.
 - 'Estar' delivers information about the subject while the gerund refers to the action.
- Spanish regular gerunds are formed with the following endings:
 - -ando for -AR verbs.
 - -iendo for -ER and -IR verbs.
- Irregular gerunds will also be irregular verbs in the present progressive.
- Reflexive and object pronouns can be placed before 'estar' or attached to the gerund when using the Spanish present progressive tense.
