Type	Irregular	Infinitive	Gerund	Past Participle
-AR	NO	Comprar to buy	Comprando Buying	Comprado Bought

DEFINITIONS & EXAMPLES

COMPRAR

#1 - Talking about purchases (To buy/purchase)

¿Cuándo van a comprar los boletos?
When are you going to buy the tickets?

Espero que hayamos comprado suficiente comida.
I hope we have bought enough food.

Si sacan buenas calificaciones, les compraré un juguete.
If you guys have good grades, I'll buy you a toy.

Take Note: Comprar is a common transitive verb. In other words, this verb can work with direct object pronouns (to talk about what you buy) and indirect object pronouns (to explain to or for whom you buy something).

#2 - Referring to bribery (To bribe)

El equipo compró al árbitro.
The team bribed the referee.

Es obvio que el partido está comprado.
It's obvious that the game is bought off.

Take Note: Some verbs in past participle form can also be used as adjectives. Those verbs work with estar to provide information about a person or object.
