

BEBER CONJUGATIONS & USES

TO DRINK

SYNONYMS: TOMAR

Type	Irregular	Infinitive	Gerund	Past Participle
-ER	NO	Beber To drink	Bebiendo Drinking	Bebido Drunk

DEFINITIONS & EXAMPLES

BEBER

#1 - To say someone's age
(To be)

Formula

[Beber conjugated] + (beverage)

¿Cuántas cervezas han bebido?
How many beers have you guys drunk?

Matt siempre bebe su café sin azúcar.
Matt always drinks his coffee without sugar.

In Spanish, we use reflexive pronouns to emphasize the action of drinking. We do this when we want to highlight that someone drinks something or to stress the amount of beverages they have had.

[Reflexive pronoun] + [beber conjugated] + (beverage)

¿Quién se bebió mi coca?
Who drank my coke?

Tony y yo nos bebimos todo el vino.
Tony and I drank all the wine.

Take Note: In Latin American Spanish, tomar is more commonly used instead of 'beber' to say 'to drink'.
