

COMER CONJUGATIONS & USES

TO EAT

SYNONYMS: DESAYUNAR

Type	Irregular	Infinitive	Gerund	Past Participle
-ER	NO	Comer To eat	Comiendo Eating	Comido Eaten

DEFINITION & EXAMPLES

COMER

To talk about eating
(To eat)

Formula

[‘Comer’ conjugated] + [complement]

¿Era tuyo? Yo me lo comí.
Was it yours? I ate it.

No eran ni las 2 y ya habíamos comido.
It wasn’t even 2, and we had already eaten.

Take Note: In its non-reflexive form, comer is only used to talk about eating habits or the time someone eats. However, we use reflexive pronouns to express that someone eats something entirely or to emphasize the amount of items a person eats. In this case, you can also add direct object pronouns to replace the thing someone ate (like example #1).
