DEFINITIONS & EXAMPLES

CONOCER

#1 - Talking about meeting/knowing someone
(To meet / To know [someone])

Formula

(Object pronoun) + [conocer conjugated] + a + (noun)

Creo que no la conozco. ¿Cómo se llama?
I don't think I know her. What's her name?

En unos días, conoceremos a nuestros vecinos.
We will meet our neighbors in a few days.

Take Note: Use direct object pronouns in Spanish to replace the person someone knows. However, if you're expressing that two people know each other, you should use reflexive pronouns to convey reciprocity.

#2 - Expressing your familiarity with a place
(To know/be familiar with [a place])

Formula

[Conocer conjugated] + [determiner] + [noun]

¿Ya conocen este restaurante?
Do you guys already know this restaurant?

No conocía esta canción, es muy bonita.
I didn't know this song; it's very nice.

Take Note: Because they're both translated as 'to know', conocer and the verb saber are usually confused. However, you should take the time to understand how saber vs conocer work.
