DEFINITION & EXAMPLES

CREER

To express thoughts, beliefs, or opinions
(To believe / To think)

Formula

[Creer conjugated] + [que] + [verb conjugated]

Creímos que estabas enfermo.
We thought you were sick.

Mi hermanito cree que eres mi novio.
My baby brother believes that you're my boyfriend.

Take Note: Use the Spanish relative pronoun que to explain what someone believes.

[Indirect object pronoun] + [creer conjugated]

¿Cuándo me vas a creer?
When are you going to believe me?

Nunca les hemos creído.
We have never believed them.

No te creo que hayas visto a Brad Pitt.
I don't believe that you have seen Brad Pitt.

Take Note: If you're using this verb to express that you believe someone, you can use indirect object pronouns in Spanish. As you can see in example #3, you can build more complex sentences by combining pronouns.
