DEFINITION & EXAMPLES

DORMIR

Dormir means 'to sleep', but based on the pronouns it's used with, it can mean:

To sleep, to go to sleep, to fall asleep, to go numb, to slack off/be careless

Formula

[Dormir conjugated] + [complement]

Los niños durmieron muy bien.
The kids slept very well.

A mi mamá se le durmió la pierna.
My mom's leg went numb.

Te dormiste a la mitad de la película.
You fell asleep in the middle of the movie.

Si se duermen, el otro equipo les va a ganar.
If you slack off, the other team is going to win.

Take Note: The reflexive form dormirse follows the same conjugation pattern as 'dormir'. You must only add the correct reflexive pronoun. Use dormir with adverbs of manner to describe how someone sleeps.
