

SPANISH 101

CAPITALIZATION

RULES:

WORDS YOU MUST CAPITALIZE

SPANISH CAPITALIZATION RULES

CAPITALIZE

The first letter of:

- A word starting a sentence
- Proper nouns
- Holidays
- Movies and book titles
- Corporate and nobility titles
- Acronyms (all letters)

Alicia y Juan van a venir para Navidad.
Alicia and Juan are coming for Christmas.

DO NOT CAPITALIZE

Unless they start the sentence:

- Subject pronouns
- Months
- Days of the week
- Seasons
- Languages
- Nationalities

Andrea y yo no vamos a venir el lunes.
Andrea and I aren't coming on Monday.

TYPES OF CAPITALIZED WORDS IN SPANISH

PROPER NOUNS

Countries, People, Cities and more!

Mexico

André

Paris

HOLIDAYS

Capitalize the first letter of holidays.

Navidad

Año Nuevo

Día de la Madre

TITLES OF THINGS

The first letter of movies, book, and art work.

El laberinto del fauno

Cien años de soledad

Las cuatro estaciones de Vivaldi

TITLES OF PEOPLE

Used in formal environments.

Director

Rey

Papa

ACRONYMS

Each letter is capitalized.

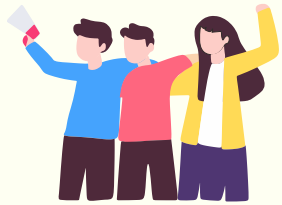

FBI

UNESCO

SAT

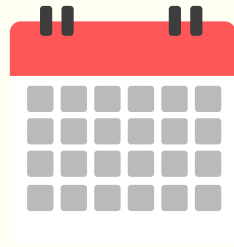

SPANISH WORDS THAT ARE NOT CAPITALIZED

SUBJECT PRONOUNS

yo, tú, él, ella, usted...

MONTHS

enero, febrero, marzo...

SEASONS

primavera, invierno, verano...

DAYS OF THE WEEK

lunes, martes, miercoles...

LANGUAGES & NATIONALITIES

mexicano, español, inglés...

LINK TO THIS GUIDE

Spanish Capitalization Rules: Words You Must Capitalize

RELATED GUIDES & RESOURCES TO CHECK OUT

Guide to Spanish Articles: The Only Lesson You'll Ever Need

 Watch My Lessons on YouTube!  Spanish Immersion YouTube

Learning Spanish: Get My Free Spanish Learning Kit!

Click here to join the Tell Me In Spanish and get your copy of the kit now.