KEY POINTS: ASK & GIVE DIRECTIONS IN SPANISH

- The verb estar in Spanish is used to express location.
- Use the impersonal word 'hay' to ask or indicate the existence of something in a particular location.
- ¿Dónde está? is the most common way to ask for something's location.
- 'Caminar', 'seguir', 'cruzar', and 'dar vuelta' are some of the most common verbs to give directions.
- Spanish prepositions of place and adverbs allow you to express more precisely where something is.
- Use greetings in Spanish to pose questions more politely.
- Contract 'a + el' into 'al' to smooth the pronunciation which means 'to the' or 'at the'.
